

GloCal Health Fellows from Kenya, Uganda, and Tanzania attend East Africa Research Symposium in January 2015

The 7th East Africa Collaborative Research Symposium was held in Kisumu from January 21-22, 2015, co-sponsored by the UCSF Center for AIDS Research (CFAR) and the University of California Global Health Institute (UCGHI). Over 90 participants, including 9 GloCal Health fellows and alumni, were in attendance. CFAR Co-Directors Drs. Paul Volberding and Warner Greene, along with GloCal PI Dr. Craig Cohen, gave keynote presentations, with other lectures and discussions led by other major global health leaders. Several of the GloCal trainees were featured.

Dr. Hendry Sawe, GloCal fellow at MUHAS

Dr. David Heller, GloCal fellow in Uganda, with Dr. Molly Cooke, Director of Education for Global Health Sciences at UCSF, and others

KEMRI GloCal fellow Dr. Linnet Ongeri with UCSF mentor Dr. Susan Meffert

CFAR Co-Director Dr. Paul Volberding presents to the Symposium